Mac Tonight is the oldest fundraising event of the Los Angeles Ronald McDonald House (LARMH). It started in 1991 at the McDonalds Production Center in the City of Industry. The event is held annually in September in the Wallis Annenberg Building at the California Science Center. Unlike other galas Mac Tonight is an evening of live entertainment, dancing, live and silent auctions. What makes this event unique is supporters enjoy a traditional McDonald's meal of Big Macs and French fries, along with wine and four bars serving a variety of cocktails. Since its inception the event has raised over $4,000,000 and has become one of the largest fundraisers to date.

The Los Angeles Ronald McDonald House (LARMH) is dedicated to supporting the health and well-being of children, by providing a "home away from home" for families of seriously-ill children who are receiving care in Southern California. The Fountain Avenue building first opened in 1980 as the third Ronald McDonald House in the world. In 1994 an expansion increased the capacity to accommodate 35 families. In the spring of 2008 the 40 room Lyman Place building opened enabling LARMH to accommodate 75 families and making the LA House the third largest House in the United States.

Our fundraising events enable the Los Angeles Ronald McDonald House to continue the ongoing support for the families and children who need our services.
